

17th October 1994

Dear Friend

Half Moon is proud to announce its latest production "At the Edge of the Sky" by Lin Coghlan which will be performed in schools in your area from December 5th 1994 to February 10th 1995.

In Lin's new play, a universal story of reconciliation and love, set on the fictional island of An Grian Mor off the west coast of Ireland, we meet four young people and a 60 year old man setting out in search of courage. This ancient place, the site of traditional pilgrimage, not only offers its visitors miracles, but also holds family secrets of a darker kind. When 17 year old Katherine Brennan's best friend Eve returns unexpectedly, everyone is forced to reassess their lives, values and priorities. Katherine must make a choice - should she cling to the familiar as her father has done all his life or reach out for the unknown, with all its possibilities of happiness? "At the Edge of the Sky" promises to be an exciting, challenging and rewarding theatrical experience.
