Souls

for audiences 14 plus

Funny, direct and deep, Souls depicts a family adrift and divided, struggling with the loss of their mother and the memory of a tragic father. Three brothers failing to connect, but when somebody needs something so much that only crime is the answer, at last a bond is made.

A vibrant, explosive comedy revealing how much we say when we say nothing (60 mins)

thursday november 16th - 7pm Royal Court Young Writers' Programme presents

Naturalised

for audiences 14 plus

Naturalised ...journeys and beginnings of young people from the Balkans. It has been crafted using several Balkan languages: 'Ubijen šapotom' (killed by a whisper) allowing the young people to reflect on their experiences of leaving one home and making another... 'Ko će ostati?' (who will stay?)

written by a group of Bosnian and Croatia young people: Martina Grgić, Mirna Jančić, Dina Mehmedbegović, Omar Smalbegović, Ismar Uzeirović, Miroslav Vranić consultant: Dina Mehmedbegović directed by Steve Gilroy

'Rat je san... War is a dream' (50 mins)

thursday november 2nd - 7pm Veronica Needa
of Yellow Earth presents

Face

for audiences 14 plus

Tracking our personal journeys, mapping out our place, claiming our space in the world, facing who we are becomes an urgent call. We cast our nets into the ocean of our ancestry and haul in old skeletons and hidden bounty.

Face is a powerful piece telling the stories of heritage, asking the questions 'Who am I? What am I? Where are my roots...?' (70 mins)

thursday october 5th - 7pm Yorkshire Women Theatre presents
Maya Chowdhry's

Sanctuary

for audiences 14 plus

Set in an amusement arcade, Sanctuary is about home and explores the stories of Sapphire, Malak and Amy who escape their lives into a fantastic cyber world where they are powerful, where they have control and where their lives can change.

A multi-level theatre experience where the audience have the chance to make decisions for the characters and change the outcome of the play (70 mins)
